

Washington, Aug. 14. (AP)—Representatives of the United States and Mexico tackled today what they hope is the final phase of an attempt to settle over $700,000,000 of long-pending general claims between the two countries.

Benito Flores, special claims arbitration commissioner for Mexico, arrived yesterday with a staff of assistants, and today he and Omar W. Underwood, Jr., the United States commissioner, went to work